

PETSCION TERMS & CONDITIONS

“PetScion” refers to [Shribalajipetscionincorporated inc.], operating under the PetScion name.

Founding Pet Parent & Early-Access Registration

Effective Date: August 2026

Last Updated: August 2026

These Terms & Conditions ("Terms") apply to your registration for PetScion's Founding Pet Parent or early-access program.

By submitting the PetScion registration form and indicating your acceptance of these Terms, you agree to the following.

1. About PetScion Early Access

PetScion is developing a digital platform intended to help pet parents discover and connect with pet-care businesses and service providers.

PetScion is currently in a pre-launch or development stage. The early-access registration allows interested pet parents to register their interest in PetScion and helps PetScion understand potential demand for its services.

2. No Guarantee of Service

Submitting an early-access registration:

- Does not constitute a booking or reservation;
- Does not guarantee access to PetScion or any particular service;
- Does not guarantee that a particular pet-care provider will become available;
- Does not guarantee a particular launch date;
- Does not create a pet-care service agreement between you and a provider; and
- Does not require you to purchase any future PetScion service.

PetScion may launch, modify, postpone, limit or discontinue proposed services or features.

3. Registration Information

You agree to provide information that is accurate to the best of your knowledge.

You must have authority to provide information concerning any pet or animal included in your registration.

Please do not submit unnecessary sensitive personal, financial or medical information through the early-access registration form.

4. PetScion Is Not Currently Providing Pet-Care Services Through This Registration

The early-access registration form is intended to collect expressions of interest and does not itself provide veterinary care, grooming, training, walking, boarding, sitting, insurance or other pet-care services.

Nothing provided through the early-access registration should be considered veterinary, medical, insurance or other professional advice.

For veterinary or medical concerns regarding an animal, users should consult an appropriately qualified veterinary professional.

5. Future PetScion Services

If PetScion subsequently launches booking, payment, marketplace, provider-matching or other services, additional or updated terms may apply.

You may be required to review and accept those terms before using those services.

Acceptance of these early-access Terms does not automatically constitute acceptance of future marketplace, booking or payment terms.

6. Communications

PetScion may contact you regarding your registration, requests you make, administrative matters and material information concerning the early-access program.

Marketing or promotional communications will be handled separately and subject to applicable consent requirements.

7. Privacy

Personal information submitted through the registration form will be handled in accordance with the PetScion Privacy Statement and applicable privacy requirements.

8. Intellectual Property

The PetScion name, branding, logos, website materials and other PetScion-owned content are or may be protected by applicable intellectual-property laws.

Registration in the early-access program does not grant you ownership of or rights to PetScion intellectual property.

9. Changes or Termination of Early Access

PetScion may modify, suspend or discontinue its early-access program or registration process.

Where changes materially affect the handling of personal information, PetScion will provide notice or obtain consent where required.

10. Governing Law

These Terms are governed by the applicable laws of Canada and the laws of the province applicable to PetScion's operations and the particular circumstances, without limiting any rights that cannot lawfully be excluded.
